

Hello Dear Friends & Family!

2019 was certainly a year of adventure for us.

January started out in usual fashion; in Arizona visiting family and friends.

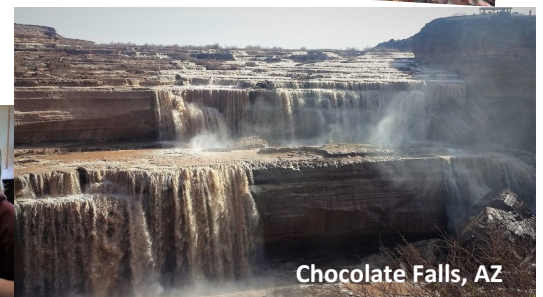

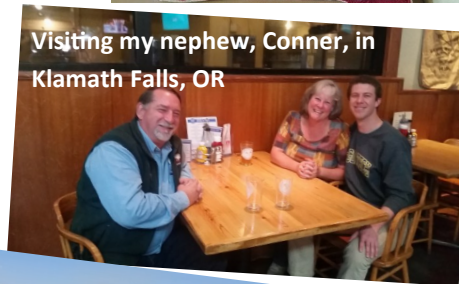

February & March we spent exploring New Mexico and exploring several State Parks.

With all the relaxation, I had time to work on some crafts.

April had us traveling northwest through Arizona, Nevada, California, & Oregon.

May took us up to Washington with a little side trip to Alaska.

We started June with a little side trip up to Banff NP Canada then jumping down to Montana to see Glacier NP, Great Falls, and a quick stop in Glendive.

July was the start of the new to us states. North Dakota, Minnesota & Iowa. Stops included the T. Roosevelt NP, Minot, & Grand Forks. In MN we caught our first glimpse of the Great Lakes with Lake Superior and toured Judy Garland's birthplace. We took a little side trip to Sioux Falls, South Dakota to visit my niece. Then onto Iowa catching a tour at the Winnie-bago factory, Amana Colonies, The Surf, Bridges of Madison Co. & John Wayne's birthplace.

August we moved into Wisconsin and were joined by Bob & Joyce Childre who traveled with us throughout Michigan for most of September.

September & October we continued south to cover Indiana & Ohio. While in Indiana our son in laws parents, Vicki & John Blake, were on their own adventure in Indiana and stopped by for a brief visit. While in Dayton Ohio I was able to catch up with my childhood friends Judy & Jean.

Which brings us to December. Looking back over this year I can't believe all the places we went and the sights we saw. Larry and I are happy to say, that after 41 years of marriage, we have now visited all 50 states of the United States of America.

Visit our blog, The Happy Wanderers, for more details of our travels.

We wish you all Good Health and Happiness in the coming year and a very Merry Christmas!

Love & Hugs ~ Connie & Larry
